

What Does it Cost to Send a Missionary?

The approximate cost is $55,000 per year, but this figure varies depending upon the type of missionary and location of service.

About 20-25% of that is for salary

The remaining 75-80% covers missionary support:

- Training
- Itineration costs
- Housing
- Insurance & Wellness benefits
- Pension
- Cost of living adjustments, when necessary
- Education for children, when necessary
