

You are invited to a Creation Care Breakfast at Lakeside! Learn how your church can get involved!

Date: Tuesday, June 10

Time: 7:30am-8:45am

Place: Marine Room, Hotel Lakeside Cost: $6 at the door for breakfast. Guest Speaker: Dr. Greg Hitzhusen

Register by going to www.umcommunityministries.org or call Beth Weisbrod at 877-228-0521.

Dr. Greg Hitzhusen, Acting Director of Ohio Interfaith Power and Light, is also on the faculty at The Ohio State University, in the School of Environment and Natural Resources, where he is developing a partnership between the Ohio Council of Churches and Ohio State University Extension to provide environmental resources to faith communities in Ohio. Dr. Hitzhusen has a B.S. in ecology from Cornell University, a M.Div. concentrating in ecotheology from Yale Divinity School, and a Ph.D. in faith-based environmental education (Cornell). Dr. Hitzhusen was previously the national Coordinator of the NatureLink program of the National Wildlife Federation; co-founder of the Outings Club and Creation Spirituality groups at Yale Divinity School; Associate with the National Religious Partnership for the Environment; and Land Stewardship Specialist for the National Council of Churches EcoJustice Programs. Greg has taught courses on creation care and outdoor ministry at Yale Divinity School and Wesley Theological Seminary, and lives with his wife and two sons in Columbus, Ohio.

Sponsored by the West Ohio Conference Creation Care Task Force, Board of Christian Social Witness